

Useful careers related websites

www.careerpilot.org.uk

- Find out about all the choices at 13, 14, 16 and 18
- Search for information on hundreds of jobs in twenty different job sectors
- Explore routes to different qualifications

<https://nationalcareersservice.direct.gov.uk>

- Browse the job profiles section to research job titles/areas of work that you are interested in
- It will give you information about jobs, pay, entry requirements; skills required and have links to other useful websites and labour market information
- You can ring/chat to a national careers service Adviser for more help and information.

www.icould.com

- Take the buzz quiz to help identify your strengths and personality type and match to careers and jobs.
- Look at videos related to jobs and subjects.

www.plotr.co.uk

- Play "The game" to help identify your interest's strengths and personality to match to career ad Jobs.
- Explore Carers and other information and advice

www.brightknowledge.org

- Bright Knowledge is the essential guide to careers, education and student life.
- Bright Life can help you work out what you want to achieve and how you can get there.

www.careersbox.co.uk

- Shows you video clips and information on a wide variety of jobs and careers. Have people talking about the job they do, as well as video clips from larger companies/organisations.

www.Ucas.com

- Information about options at 16
- Search for university courses
- Look for entry requirements/subjects required that you may need for courses

www.prospects.ac.uk

- General careers information

www.nomisweb.co.uk

- Labour Market information
- Nomis is a web-based database of labour market statistics. Nomis is run by the University of Durham on behalf of the Office for National Statistics. Nomis houses an extensive range of government statistical information on the UK labour market including data on employment, unemployment, earnings and the Labour Force Survey (LFS).

Apprenticeship Websites – to help you get information and find vacancies

- www.getingofar.gov.uk
- www.getmyfirstjob.co.uk