Cape Cornwall School is looking to appoint an enthusiastic and committed Teacher of Science to join our Science Faculty. Applications are invited from candidates who have the skills, experience and dedication to join our highly-motivated and dedicated team: our aim is to ensure high achievement and progress for all through our outstanding curriculum and high quality teaching.

The science faculty is part of the ENTHUSE partnership with Spaceport Cornwall. This, along with the Truro and Penwith Academy's STEM learning partnership, have created links which are developing and evolving. The successful candidate will have access to many opportunities through the partnerships in place. Cape Cornwall School is currently undergoing an exciting digital transformation, with technological advances being used to aid and embed research led teaching strategies.

Your key responsibilities will be:

- Teaching KS3 and KS4 science to ensure excellent progress and outcomes for every child;
- Ensuring highly effective assessment and intervention to enable all students to achieve the very best, whatever their starting points.
- Supporting students' personal development in the role of tutor and through delivery of the pastoral programme.

You will share our commitment to excellence, inclusion and aspiration for every student and will be determined to ensure the very best outcomes for children. You will also work in partnership with colleagues within Truro and Penwith Academy Trust Schools. This post would be suitable for NQTs who would receive a full induction programme.

To discuss this opportunity or to arrange a visit to Cape Cornwall School, please contact Jon Hall, Head of School, at: jhall@cape.tpacademytrust.org

To apply and for further information, please visit the Vacancies section of our website: <https://cape.cornwall.sch.uk>. Alternatively please email: okeith@cape.tpacademytrust.org

Application forms should be returned to Miss O Keith, PA to Leadership Team, at: okeith@cape.tpacademytrust.org

Closing date: 12.00pm Thursday 19 January 2023

Interview date: Week beginning 23 January 2023

Truro and Penwith Academy Trust is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment. If successful in being appointed to a post, you will be expected to apply for a disclosure from the Disclosure and Barring Service as well as other employment checks before your appointment is confirmed.
