Cape Cornwall School is looking to appoint an enthusiastic and committed Teacher of Food Technology and Nutrition to join our Creative Design Faculty. Applications are invited from candidates who have the skills, experience and dedication to join our highly-motivated and dedicated team: our aim is to ensure high achievement and progress for all through our outstanding curriculum and high quality teaching.

The key responsibilities of this role will include:

- Teaching KS3 and KS4 Food Technology and Nutrition to ensure excellent progress and outcomes for every child;
- Ensuring highly effective assessment and intervention to enable all students to achieve the very best, whatever their starting points.
- Supporting students' personal development in the role of tutor and through delivery of the pastoral programme.

You will share our commitment to excellence, inclusion and aspiration for every student and will be determined to ensure the very best outcomes for children. This post would be suitable for NQTs who would receive a full induction programme. There is a very strong and loyal staff team at Cape Cornwall School where all members of the school community are highly valued.

Due to the nature of the post, we would welcome applications from individuals who are currently working in a different education phase.

To discuss this opportunity or to arrange a visit to Cape Cornwall School, please contact Jon Hall, Headteacher at: jhall@cape.tpacademytrust.org

To apply and for further information, please visit the 'Vacancies' section of our website: <https://cape.cornwall.sch.uk>. Alternatively please email: okeith@cape.tpacademytrust.org

Application forms should be returned to Miss O Keith, PA to Leadership Team, at: okeith@cape.tpacademytrust.org

Closing date: 12.00pm Wednesday 14 June 2023
Interview date: Monday 19 June 2023

Truro and Penwith Academy Trust is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment. If successful in being appointed to a post, you will be expected to apply for a disclosure from the Disclosure and Barring Service as well as other employment checks before your appointment is confirmed.
